

rules to our body of rules. In approximately five to ten minutes we will begin discussion of rules.

CLERK: (Read LB 82-97 for first time by title. See pages 86 through 88 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, I have a series of other items that should be noted. First of all, Mr. President, the Appropriations Committee will be conducting an executive session Friday, January 11, in Room 1003 upon adjournment, Appropriations Committee in executive session tomorrow upon adjournment.

Mr. President, I have received the Committee on Committee's report regarding placement of members on the various standing and special committees. That will be inserted in the Journal. (See page 89 through 91 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, I have received a communication from the Secretary of State regarding the posting of bond as is required by our State Constitution regarding the election of Mr. James F. Munnelly to the Public Service Commission.

PRESIDENT: I guess now we are ready for the consideration of item seven on the agenda, the motion to adopt permanent rules. Senator Morehead, are you around still? Who is going to handle that?

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Mr. President, I move that we adopt permanent rules.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to adopt permanent rules. Have you all heard the motion? Oh, we won't take up that motion. That will be the pending motion for the next maybe two days or whenever we move through all the proposed changes in rules which will come before you in the form of proposed amendments. So at this time we have the beginning of a series of amendments. Mr. Clerk. Thank you, Senator Morehead.

CLERK: Mr. President, the first amendment I have to the motion is offered by Senator Warner. Senator Warner's motion is found on page 26 of the Journal. It would amend Rule 8, Section 5, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Warner, are you available? Let's have
